Call for application for Trainers to teach in the MCFD

Basic Teachers' Course in Vocational Training in Family Medicine

The MCFD will be holding a certificate course for Trainers in Vocational Training in Family Medicine. Applications are invited from trainers in Family Medicine who are able to deliver such courses. Three trainers are needed to deliver this course, which will consist of two modules, one face-to-face from May 5th-7th and the other online in June.

The aims, objectives and content of these modules are formalised. Trainers will be asked to attend to the delivery and assessment of the set syllabus. A report on the evaluation of the course will need to be given within two weeks of the course end date.

The number of participants will be between 20 and 25. The maximum number of tutors will be 5 trainers.

Eligibility criteria

1. Paid up full member of the MCFD for at least 5 years
2. Certified as Trainer in FM
3. On the Specialist Register of Family Medicine
4. Is in good standing with the Medical Council of Malta
5. Is in good standing with the Malta College of Family Doctors
6. Can be available on the said dates.

Preference will be given to Trainers with relevant Post Graduate Certificates/ Diplomas and to Trainers with experience in delivering Training the Trainer Courses.

Remuneration

Trainers will be paid Euro 1,000.00 for delivery and assessment of the two modules, on submitting the evaluation report to the MCFD.

Applications with a detailed Curriculum Vitae and a covering letter satisfying the eligibility criteria, as well as copies of relevant certificates, are to be sent by email until 30th March 2022, at secretary@mcfid.org.mt .

Chosen applicants must agree to:

- Attend all sessions in the two course modules
- Work in a group
- Uphold professional conduct

The decision of the Council on the choice or otherwise of applicants is final.

Applicants will be notified of the acceptance or otherwise of their application, by email.
